

Tactical Team Training: Planning, Preparation, and Safety

This course is designed for tactical teams or specialized units that regularly conduct tactical training. It will provide attendees with the knowledge and skills to create a comprehensive training platform, from conducting Training Needs Assessments, creating lesson plans, developing a training safety officers program, to completing training after-action reports. Students will perform several group exercises and receive sample forms capable of agency personalization.